

UNIVERSITY OF LEEDS

The Future of Women's Pasts

Friday 26 June, 2015

A one day conference on women's history and archives at the University of Leeds sponsored by the School of History and the Leeds Humanities Research Institute

10 a.m. Registration

10.30-11.45:

Keynote Lecture: Professor Ann Schofield (Kansas University)

“My Life in the Archive”

11.45-12.45pm: Historicizing & Constructing Women's Archives

Polly Russell, (British Library) “Sisterhood and After Project.”

Kate Dossett, (University of Leeds) “Feminist Archives, Feminist Futures Project.”

12.45-1.45: LUNCH

1.45-3pm: Women's Libraries and Feminist Archives:

Jalna Hanmer, (Feminist Archive North); Paulien Schuurmans (Atria);

Adele Patrick (Glasgow Women's Library);

Gail Chester, Yula Burin and Anna Pigott (Feminist Library).

3.00-3.30 COFFEE

3.30-4.30: Women, Community and Family Archives

Hannah Niblett, “Women & the Race Relations Archive,” (Ahmed Iqbal Ullah Race Relations Resource Centre, Manchester).

Laura King, “Women, Families & Personal Archives.” (University of Leeds).

4.30-5.30: Roundtable: Activist Archives & the Future of Women’s Pasts.

The roundtable is an opportunity for speakers and participants to share ideas about current and future collaborative projects on women’s archives.

This a free, public event but spaces are limited. To book a place please e mail k.m.dossett@leeds.ac.uk

Conference website: <http://www.feminist-archives.leeds.ac.uk/events>
<https://twitter.com/feministarchive>